Rome, July 19. N. S.

COunt Martinitz, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, returned hither ſome days ago from Vienna, and has ſummoned the Prince of Chigy to receive from the Emperor, within two months, the Inveſtiture of the Principali y of Farneſe, and other Fiefs which he holds, belonging to the Empire, on pain of forfeiting the ſame; upon which the Pope appointed a Congregation of Cardinals to conſider of this Matter, who met accordingly, and reſolved, That the ſaid Principality, and the other Fiefs, poſſeſſed by the Prince of Chigy, do belong to the Eccleſiaſtical State, and therefore the ſaid Prince ought not to receive the Inveſtiture of any other Prince than the Pope, whereof they ordered that notice ſhould be given him; and as well the Pope as the Ambaſſador, have thereupon diſpatched Expreſſes to the Court at Vienna.

Venice, July 26. We have received an Account from Napoli di Romania, that our Fleet, conſiſting in 24 Men of War, 3 great Ships laden with Proviſions, and 3 Fireſhips, beſides the Galleys, ſailed the 13th Inſtant out of that Port, and we hear ſince that they were come to the Iſle of Andros; and that the Popes and Malteze Galleys paſſed the 8th Inſtant by Corfou, going to join them. Our laſt Advices from Turkey ſay, That the Turkiſh Fleet was ſailed from the Dardanelles, they having been joined by the Ships from Barbary, and Steered their Courſe towards the Iſle of Scio.

Warſaw, July 25. The Treaty for Adjuſting the Differences in Lithuania, is now fully concluded, and has been Approved and Signed by the King. The Chief Points are; That as the Kingdom of Poland, and the Great Dutchy of Lithuania, make one united Commonwealth, ſo the Rights of all its Members, both Polanders and Lithuanians, ſhall be exactly the ſame, and accordingly the Great Officers of the ſaid Dutchy ſhall pretend to no greater Priviledges and Authority in their reſpective Stations, than belong to thoſe of the Crown of Poland: That however the Great General of Lithuania ſhall continue in the Enjoyment of his former Priviledges, till the ſame be Enquired into and Settled a-new by the next General Dyet; That the ſaid General ſhall bring into the Field a Body of 9000 Men, to join the reſt of the Kings Forces as there may be occaſion; and to this Effect ſhall, with the Kings Approbation, and the Advice of the Great Treaſurer, charge each particular Woywodſhip as to their Quota's of Men, their Contributions of Money towards Maintaining them, and the Winter-Quarters they are to allow them; all which Aſſeſſments are to be Examined and Settled in the next Dyet, and in the mean while the General has Power to oblige the Country to furniſh their Quota's accordingly; And the Families of Sapieha and Oginsky promiſe to forget and forgive the Injuries they have ſuſtained from each other, and if any new Diſpute happen, to ſubmit them to the Deciſion of the next General Dyet. The Cardinal Primate went this day to Sury, to take his Leave of the King, and will return in a day or two to Lowitz, the Place of his uſual Reſidence. The King deſigns in a ſhort time to begin Journey to the Army; but he will firſt go to Otwocick and Irlinski, to paſs ſome days at the Houſes of the Vice-Chamberlain of the Crown, and the Woywode Sierasky, who are gone thither to prepare things for his Majeſties Entertainment. A great quantity of Ammunition, with 12 heavy Cannon, and ſeveral Field-Pieces, was ſent from hence yeſterday to Lemberg.

Dantzick, July 29. Our laſt Advices from Poland ſay, the Forces of that Kingdom are marching with all expedition to their general Rendezvous, and that the neceſſary preparations are making for opening the Campagne. They write from Warſaw, that the Differences in Lithuania are fully accommodated, a Treaty to that Effect having been concluded between the Two Differing Parties, which was Approved of and Signed by the King; But by ſome Letters from Lithuania we have an account, that while this Treaty was Negociating at Warſaw, the Forces of General Sapieha had an Engagement with thoſe of the Sieur Oginsky, being encamped near the River Mimmel, whom they put to flight, and purſued them ſo cloſely, that ſeveral of Oginsky's Men betook themſelves to the River, and were drowned, and at the departure of theſe Letters it was not yet known what was become of Oginsky himſelf; Of which we expect a more particular Account by the next Letters from thence.

Vienna, July 26. The King of the Romans entring this day into the 21th year of his Age, has on this Occaſion been Complimented by the Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Quality at Court. The Czar of Muſcovy took Leave yeſterday of their Imperial Majeſties, and goes this day on his Journey to Venice: His Ambaſſadors are to have their Publick Audience next week. The 6 new built Frigats are ordered forthwith to ſail down to Peter-Waradin, to join the reſt of our Fleet on the Danube. Our Letters from Croatia ſay, the Governor of Zigna was gone with a Party of his Gariſon to make an Incurſion into the Enemies Territories.

Bruſſels, Aug. 7. The Electorels of Bavaria was brought to Bed on the 5th Inſtant of a Prince.

Hague, Aug. 9. N. S. His Majeſty went from hence on the 6th Inſtant, early in the morning, and arrived in the evening at Loo, being attended by the Earl of Portland, the Earl of Eſſex, the Earl of Stelkirke, and ſeveral other Perſons of Quality; The Duke of Holſtein-Ploen is come to Loo, to wait upon His Majeſty, and is expected here in a few days. The Earl of Albemarle is arrived from England, and deſigns to go to Loo to morrow. The States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland ſeparated this day till the 15th of the next month. The Deputies of the Admiralty have alſo adjourned their Meeting till that time. The Count d'Auvergne is gone hence to the Camp at Compeigne. Monſieur Hop having received his Inſtructions, and other Diſpatches, relating to his Embaſſy to the Imperial Court, intends to go from hence to morrow to Amſterdam, and on Tueſday next he will continue his Journey to Vienna. It is much diſcourſed here, that 30000 Men of the Forces belonging to the States-General, will encamp this Summer on the Monckerhyde, and that Orders are given out for this purpoſe.

Paris, Aug. 13. N. S. The Baron de Plettemberg had on the 5th Inſtant his Audiences of Leave at this Court, and intends to return home in a few days. Major General Jordan, Envoy Extraordinary from Poland, had Audience the ſame day of the Dauphin. The King has put off his Journey to the Camp at Compigne till the firſt of the next month.

Corke, July 28. The Lords-Juſtices of this Kingdom returned hither yeſterday morning from Kinſale, being attended by divers Gentlemen of this County. Their Lordſhips Reviewed the Royal Regiment of Foot, commanded by Col. Frederick Hamilton, and this morning went down the River towards the Harbours Mouth, and being returned, were Entertained at Dinner by the Biſhop of Corke. To morrow their Lordſhips intend to go to Limerick.
